

Adult Services Report for the Month of August 2019

Author Richard Ratay spoke about his book and the history of the family road trip on August 7th. There were eleven people in attendance. The author presentation was very entertaining and informative.

I hosted the Memory Café on August 12th. Mariann Scott attended the workshop and spoke about the local food pantry. There were six participants in attendance and two volunteers.

There were four attendees at the monthly "What Are You Reading?" book discussion on August 13th.

Sixteen people participated in the August 19th Maker Monday workshop. This month the project was jewelry making with beads and wire. We have a very creative community here in Whitewater.

I proctored 10 exams.

Meetings/Workshops Attended:
